Hugh Lee and the Pariahs, The Fox & The Hounds, Jonathan Fin and returning singer/comedian Matt Griffo among 60+ artists for Wicker Park Bucktown's annual ChillFest pop music festival

Free live performances in dozens of neighborhood storefronts plus special discounts, refreshments, freebies and raffle prizes on Small Business Saturday, Nov. 24 from 2-6 p.m.

CHICAGO (October 22, 2018)—The Wicker Park Bucktown Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce the artists and venues for its annual ChillFest pop music festival—Chicago's only free music festival on Small Business Saturday, Nov. 24 from 2-6 p.m. This free one-day-only event celebrates the creative and entrepreneurial roots of the Wicker Park and Bucktown neighborhoods by curating 60+ local musicians to perform in more than 20 neighborhood storefronts at the start of the holiday shopping season.

Participating artists for ChillFest 2018 include: '90s inspired hip-hop group Hugh Lee and the Pariahs, Chicago's only burlesque rock and roll band The Fox & The Hounds, self-taught and self-produced multi-instrumentalist Jonathan Fin, plus returning singer/comedian Matt Griffo.

Attendees can stroll from venue to venue, taking in the live music sets while shopping, having a drink or experiencing local art. Each business hosts 3-4 artists in a dedicated portion of its space, with musicians playing 20- to 60-minute sets, paired as closely as possible to the venue's ambiance.

Artists and venues are subject to change. For the most up-to-date schedule of where and when each artist will be playing, visit chillfestchicago.com.
